Spouses Authorize Allotments

Under Interim Change 40-99 to the DoD FMR Volume 7A, spouses may sign for Army

Emergency Relief assistance requiring allotment repayment acting under a special power of attorney. However, a general power of attorney is not good enough. In order to obligate a soldier's pay account a spouse must have a special power of attorney which specifically authorizes them to initiate this allotment. Previous to this change a spouse could not sign an allotment against the soldier's pay account. Get details at the JAG office.

Private Organization Briefing

Attention private organizations: There will be an annual briefing for all 6th Area Support Group private organizations March 24 from 2 to 3:30 p.m. at the Kelley Community Club, Kelley Barracks. It is mandatory that all private organization presidents and treasurers are present at the meeting and that each PO bring proof of bonding. For more information call 421-2089/civ. 0711-729-2089.

VA Requests in Ending Insurance Hoax

The Veterans Assistance Office of Inspector General requests assistance in attempting to put an end to an insurance hoax that has plagued the VA for many years. Veterans are being told by mimeographed fliers or articles in locally distributed publications to apply for SGLI dividends, even on lapsed policies. The fliers did not originate with the VA and do not reflect VA policies.

The VA does not pay dividends on lapsed SGLI policies. Dividend payments are automatic to those veterans who have participating policies and who continue to pay premiums. The dividend is usually paid on the anniversary date of the policy, and no application is needed.

You can render a great service by providing VA's actual policy on SGLI dividends, as described above, to your veteran friends and the management of any publication that carries the insurance hoax notice. Some recent versions of the hoax have included offers to assist the veteran in obtaining the "dividend" for a small fee. Since there is no such dividend, you should not give any money to individuals who make this offer to you. If you are approached with such an offer, you should immediately report it to the VAOIG:

Department of Veterans Affairs, Inspector General
Hotline (53E), P.O. Box 50410, Washington, D.C.
20091-0410,
(VAOIG.HOTLINE@FORUM.VA.GOV) to e-mail or call 800-488-8244.
